Workshop Description:

Enjoy a day of multiple starting points to a creative Schulwerk lesson. Each lesson K-5 will take us on a different pathway to material: Movement as the starting point, singing games, literacy, or body percussion. Enjoy seeing how the same song can be used at several grade levels depending on your students. Get a new fresh batch of materials perfect for the energy of your students in the spring and keep your sanity as you hang on to the end of the school year, as this path of the school year is a busy, bumpy one! Let's all hang on for the ride as this pathway will be a joyful journey full of inspirational lessons!

BethAnn Hepburn, M.A. Music Education, University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, MN and Teacher Education Instructor for the American Orff-Schulwerk Association. BethAnn has taught music to grades Pre-K to 6 for Streetsboro City Schools, with the distinction of being a Master Teacher for the State of Ohio. She is the chair for TEAP for AOSA, is currently on the Board of Trustees for The American Center for Elemental Music and Movement, and she serves as the Ohio Music Education Association's PD Chair for General Music. She is a frequent presenter for AOSA National Conferences, Orff chapters across the United States and has done workshops in China, Singapore, and Scotland. BethAnn is co-author of Purposeful Pathways: Possibilities for the Elementary Music Classroom Books 1-3. She teaches level I at the University of Hawai'i, the New York City ETM Orff Course and The University of the Arts at Villanova.
